

“The very ink with which all history is written is merely fluid prejudice.”

a conference at Boston University observing the legacies of Mark Twain and Leo Tolstoy on the centennial of their passing

20-22 August 2010

Possible Panels:

- ☞ The International National Epic
- ☞ The Veneration of Location (in Print or in Mortar)
- ☞ Between the Lines: Libraries and Marginalia
- ☞ Editing Literary Executorship
- ☞ Twain, Tolstoy, and the Testaments
- ☞ Imperial Rejection, Political Reception
- ☞ Lost in Translation: Tolstoy in English, Twain in Russian
- ☞ Censorship Uncensored
- ☞ Twain and Tolstoy in the Twenty-First Century

MARK TWAIN

(1835-1910)

LEO TOLSTOY

(1828-1910)

For questions, please contact Alex Effgen at Boston University's Editorial Institute (abeffgen@bu.edu). To contribute to a panel, send a short curriculum vitae and 300-word abstract to the above email by 5 March 2010.